The best budget smartphone is the most curious thing. People need all smart facilities in a determined budget. The brands like XIAOMI, Vivo, Oppo, Samsung, Honor stands to fulfil your requirements. So here we are going to talk about the top 3 best upcoming smartphones under 15k. Although there are various options are available in the market but below listed these three smartphones are good and best at the price. Check-in below and know the detail specification and why I have been referring these to you.

Samsung Galaxy M31

Probably this is going to be the best budget smartphone, With Samsung, you get an extraordinary design and with this galaxy M31, It's going to be the best performance smartphone coming under the budget. The expected rate is 14,900. The phone is expected to launch up to the end of December or beginning of January. The official launch date yet to declare.

Specifications

- Processor - Octa-core, snapdragon 665 with 6 Gb ram.
- 48 +12 +5 MP Triple primary camera, 16 MP from the camera.
- 5000 mAh non-removable battery and USB Type-C port.

Xiaomi Mi CC9e

The expected launch date for the phone is 26 December 2019. It's going to be the best budget smartphone of the year 2019 from Mi. There are three colours variants for this phone, black, blue and silver. It will come with gorilla glass 5. And when we are talking about Xiaomi then we no need to talk about its performance. Although the key features of this phone are.

Specifications

- Processor - Octa-core, snapdragon 665 with 4 Gb ram.
- 48 +8 +2 MP Triple primary camera, 32 MP from camera
- 4030 mAh battery with USB Type-C port and quick charging 3.0

Honor 9X

Honor 9X comes with superior design with the under-display selfie camera, which gives an ultra shine look. It's absolutely perfect at the price. The expected date of launch this phone is same as XIAOMI Mi CC9e (end of December). The expected price is 14,190 Rs. It also comes with three colours variant, Blue, red and black. The key features of the smartphone are,

Specifications

- Processor - Octa-core, HiSilicon Kirin with 4 Gb ram.
- 48 +2 MP dual primary camera, 16 MP from camera
- 4000 mAh battery with USB Type-C port.

These were some of the best budget smartphones that I recommend if you plan to buy phones at the end of December or beginning of January 2020. All the phones come with all new latest features.

There is one more alternative of Honor 9X i.e Vivo Z5X. If you like the smartphones of Vivo then you can go with it. Key features are almost the same.
