Nowadays, it is very easy to get hundreds of various messaging platforms. You can use Instagram, WhatsApp, and SnapChat but the SMS/text messaging platform is still working on every single phone easily without any issues. In your phone, there will be several default SMS apps which are not very good to use. In this situation, you can take the help of SMS applications for your Android devices. Let's go through the 5 best SMS app for your Android phone right now.

Android messages

This is one of the most famous and widely used messaging apps by users all around the world. The best thing is that you are actually using it on your phone as it is already on your android devices. You should note that it is Google's own SMS app and already pre-loaded on many Android phones. The user interface is very easy, understandable, RCS-complaint, and new features will be rolling out for sure.

Mood messenger

It is one of the newest apps and mostly preferred by the user these days due to its great features and simplicity. This application always keeps things simple so that you would not face any issues while using it even for the first time. The users of the Mood messenger can also send message to each other without using SMS. It is free to use and you do not have to pay anything in the future also.

Textra SMS

If you are looking for a popular SMS app for your Android phone, then Textra SMS will be only for you. This app gives plenty of customizable option to its users. You can easily customized notifications, backgrounds, bubbles, emoji, and contacts. This application is free to use and always will be.

Microsoft SMS organizer

This application is very neat and very useful SMS app for all the Android devices. It can easily sort your all messages into a different number of categories. Your inbox will be divided into promotional, personal, blocked and transactional and it is also very easy to use with a tap only. There is also an option to view only unread messages in another tab. If you want to configure the notifications so that you would get the notifications only for personal messages, then it is possible by using the Microsoft SMS organizer app.

QK SMS

It is one of the attractive and unique apps for your Android device. This application is all about speed, but very fast and also lightweight. It is easy to get in and out of the conversation. It is also open source and free to use for everyone. This application gives your phone a trendy messaging look so that you would love to read your messages.

Finally, you are aware of the best 5 SMS app for your Android phone. You can install any of the above-mentioned SMS apps for your messaging needs right now itself. All the apps are free to use and no need to spend anything.
