TikTok, from the beginning itself, was the most popular video-sharing platform all over the world. However, the popularity of TikTok went higher in a short notice period, and still, now, it is the most used platform in various countries. With the entry of TikTok, the short video became a new trend all over the world. Being a Chinese-based platform, some countries ban the service. However, its popularity in other countries is still at its peak. Several other platforms were available these days, but none of them ever managed to beat TikTok. This article will list some of the best alternatives for TikTok. Of course, it won't be any replacement for the TikTok, but as a new consideration, if you are looking for a new similar platform. The list below is in random order, not based on popularity. So here is the best alternative, TikTok, the platform you can consider in 2022 and you can create a TikTok Alternative account in those platforms.

Best TikTok Alternatives - TikTok Like Video Sharing Platform

Here is the list of 10+ TikTok Like Social Media Platforms to share your short videos.

Clash

Clash is an American-based video-sharing platform. You can create short-form videos, and they need to be between 2-16 seconds long. It is an alternative to TikTok. This app is built for creators who prioritize authenticity, creativity, and community.

Youtube Shorts

Youtube Shorts are a TikTok-like short video format on Youtube. They are a powerful tool to help you grow your Youtube channel and catch your audience. Youtube shorts are a new way to watch, discover and create short content using nothing but your phone. They are short vertical videos, which need to be less than 60 seconds. In addition, they should be vertical or square. Horizontal videos and videos longer than 60 seconds will not work with Youtube shorts. Anyway, for Youtube, these are different styles of content and engagement to your regular videos. Although now the shorts are optimized for viewing on mobile devices, they are still accessible and viewable on desktops and TVs. The useful thing about shorts is that there are no requirements to start creating and uploading videos. They provide an easy, lightweight way to create. Furthermore, the shorts connect you to Youtube users giving them a new, customized viewing experience of endless laughs, learning, music, etc.

Likee

Likee is a Singapore-based short video creation and sharing platform similar to TikTok. This is one of the easiest ways to create short video content on an app. It is available for iOS and Android operating systems. Likee is almost similar to TikTok, so it will be easy for the users to use it. The Likee mobile app allows users to easily create and edit videos with a wide range of augmented reality effects.

SnapChat

Snapchat is a messaging app that lets users send disappearing texts, pictures, and videos. Most people like it because they can share silly moments and add colorfully captions and graphics to their pictures and can set a timer for how many seconds these can be viewed. Using Snapchat, you can talk to all of your friends and talk to people worldwide on it. As a result, it has quickly become popular, especially among young people. The most helpful thing with Snapchat is that message you send will disappear from your phone when the time limit has reached.

KWAI

KWAI is a social networking video app that is mainly used in China. It is popular among less affluent, less educated people of China, those from smaller towns and villages. It is useful for creating and sharing short videos with your friends and followers. The popularity of KWAI is that it doesn't require any technical experience or guidance. As a result, it is one of the most reliable apps for video editors.

Triller

Triller is an American-based video-sharing app. It is similar to TikTok and is safe and easy to use. With this app, you can create short format videos, edit your videos and share them with others. It is available for iOS and Android platforms. Triller app is mainly for entertainment purposes, and it works based on artificial intelligence. Using this app, you can also create professional touch videos within a short span of time.

Instagram Reels

Instagram reels are a new way to create and discover short, entertaining videos on Instagram. On Instagram, you can record and edit 15-second videos with audio effects, text, and other creative tools. It is similar to TikTok with similar capabilities.

Byte

Byte is one of the popular short-form video apps, and it is a social media app so you can create your videos and share them with others. The uniqueness of this app is that it was created by the person that created vine- a social media app for sharing short videos. The Byte app is simple, and it is an alternative to Triller. It will be easy for those familiar with other short video apps to work with Byte.

Dubsmash

Dubsmash is another video-creating app just an alternative for TikTok. It focuses on fun and engaging lip-syncing videos like TikTok. Dubsmash has a large sound library that includes TV and movie quotes. You can also add stickers and text to your videos to make better and more engaging video content. With Dubsmash, you can easily save videos to your camera roll or share them on other social media networks.

Clapper

Clapper is a social media platform for creating and sharing short videos. Using this app, you can create 3-minute videos, which is so much better when trying to talk about a topic. Clapper is the best option if you make content for more mature audiences. One important thing about clapper is that it wants its content to be completely original.

Firework

Firework is a short-form video platform similar to TikTok. It allows users to upload high-quality videos to the platform, which should be 30 seconds long. However, when compared with TikTok, the user base of Firework is small.

MuStar

MuStar is a popular app for creating short musical videos and lip-syncing videos. It is an alternative to TikTok and is more child-friendly than other alternatives.

Conclusion

Even though the above-mentioned alternative for TikTok is good and has popularity, we cannot say it is a perfect replacement for TikTok. In the case of features and functionality, most of them are even better than TikTok, but the main issue is with the userbase. In TikTok, the user base is massive, and you will get more followers on TikTok and can increase the reach quickly. However, on other platforms, the userbase is comparatively less at this time. Therefore, you can also try the TikTok alternatives mentioned above if you wish to try something different.
