In brief

Are you looking for any reliable and secure credit card mobile app that can help you in tracking all your credit details instantly? If yes is your answer, then you should install CRED mobile app on your device right now.

Are you looking for any reliable and secure credit card mobile app that can help you in tracking all your credit details instantly? If yes is your answer, then you should install CRED mobile app on your device right now. With the help of the CRED app, you can add your credit card details in the app and pay the bills by tracking your payment on a monthly basis from the app directly. For making payments, you can use your UPI apps, debit card or net banking. You should note that the process of payment is smooth and very swift.

CRED is the only popular app through which you can easily get your reward points by clearing your credit card dues. It is also possible to pay the credit card bills of any bank with the help of the CRED app. You would get a cashback on paying bills at the right time. If you are making the transaction, then you would cashback on every transaction for sure. After making a payment of more than Rs 1000, you would get the option "killthebill". It is just like a scratch card, where you can easily win the amount from Rs 10 to 1000.

Users will also earn CRED coins to redeem their gifts. For each credit card payment, you are going to earn CRED coins. With the help of these coins, you can purchase rewards for offline and online shopping. You can also earn CRED germs by referring your friends easily. By using CRED germs, you can get gift vouchers from Amazon and UBER.

Here some of the other great features of the CRED app

- Smooth bill payment experience for the app users
- Daily reminders of your credit card bills payment
- Option to Auto pay credit card bills
- Know any hidden charges on your credit card with CRED protect
- Monitor your spends across all your credit cards in just a single place
- Check your credit score without paying anything
- Mobile application available for both Android and IOS devices

The user interface of the app is very simple and easy to understand for the users. I have installed this great app and verified my phone number; I have received 822 points which is equal to my credit score. It is the best app to get your credit score too easily without any problem.

If you want to see your Credit score and report, then you can see it free of cost. The app is currently showing the credit score from CRIF and Experian. Just go to the detailed credit report where you can check out payment history, age of credit history and credit card utilization. To apply for a CRED membership, then you need to sign up with your full name and verified phone number on the app. If you are having a good credit score, then you are going to be a member of CRED and will have access to several privileges and rewards for sure.

So, what are you waiting for? Track your credit card details right now!
