YouTube is one of the most popular video-sharing platforms to watch various videos accessible on the web or mobile device. YouTube is a google-owned platform, and it displays ads to the users to monetize itself.

But several users do not want to see the ads popping up now and then. If you are one of such users then congratulations because there are several ways to get rid of YouTube ads. You can either pay for YouTube Premium or go through easy tricks for an ad-blocker. This trick to disable ads from displaying on YouTube is just simple.

Before going through the steps to disable YouTube ads, have a glance at the major difference between YouTube Free and YouTube Premium.

Difference between YouTube Premium and YouTube Free

YouTube is a popular and free video Sharing platform that supports free and easily watchable online videos. YouTube Free allows users to create and upload their videos to share with a huge audience. Created in 2005, at present, YouTube is one of the most popular sites on the web, which counts in more than a billion visitors watching around 6 billion hours of video per month.

On the other hand, YouTube Premium is a newly launched Google paid all-ad-free service. You will be availed with the paid version of YouTube, without ads, and live on.

The premium version of YouTube includes YouTube Music Premium. The Premium version of YouTube will cost you around $9.99 per month.

YouTube Premium is the best way to access YouTube videos without ads on the website or even from the App itself on your Android Phone or iPhone.

YouTube Premium is not accessible to network content as it is mostly meant to be an ad-free version of the free YouTube platform, where the original content is against other video-streaming websites such as Netflix, Amazon Video, and Hulu.

The Premium version of YouTube is $11.99 per month with a 30-day free trial. It allows you to watch favorite videos without ads. It also has an additional feature i.e offline streaming of downloaded videos, background audio accessibility with the YouTube Music app, the ability to multitask with a video running in the background, and other apps running on your mobile device simultaneously, etc.

You can say a yes to YouTube premium because it offers a free month of ad-free access for first-time individual, student, or family plan subscribers. You can get the free month subscription by entering a valid credit card followed by recurring billing at sign up.

YouTube Premium Pricing

YouTube Premium comes with three main tiers i.e individual tier, family tier, and student tier.

Individual tier will cost you $11.99 per month which adds on features such as unlimited use of ad-free services, YouTube original videos downloads, offline sharing, and a complimentary YouTube Music subscription.

The family tier will cost you $17.99 per month, which comes with individual benefits to up to 5 other family members of 13 or 13+ age.

Student tier will cost you $6.99 per month with unlimited access for eligible students of four-year colleges/universities.

How to disable ads on YouTube

YouTube Premium

If you are tired of YouTube ads, you just have to sign up for YouTube Premium. YouTube Premium allows you to avail yourself benefits on YouTube, YouTube Music, and also YouTube for Kids.

Step 1: On your Android Phone, iPhone, Tablet, or iPad, open the YouTube App.

Step 2: Sign up for the YouTube account

Step 3: Click on your profile picture

Step 4: Tap on 'Get YouTube Premium'

Step 5: Select your Plan based on the number of months

Step 6: Start your Month with Ad-Free YouTube whether you are on Desktop or App

Using Third-party Apps Like Youtube Vanced

YouTube Vanced is a Free version of the official YouTube Application that allows you to watch videos without ads. YouTube Vanced offers its users with ad-blockage feature and an extra feature of the black, dark, blue, or pink theme. YouTube Vanced supports enabling swipe controls just as you get on android video players like MX Player or VLC.

YouTube Vanced can be used on both rooted as well as non-rooted Android devices. On rooted devices, it can be used along with the support for Magisk Module.

Steps to be followed

Step 1: Launch MicroG Application and YouTube Vanced Application on your android or iOS device.

Step 2: Go to the settings and disable the original YouTube APK.

Step 3: Open YouTube Vanced application

Step 4: A "Dismiss" bar will appear. Just choose the dismiss on the popup.

Step 5: Click on your profile and select the add-account.

Step 6: Sign in to your Google account and go back.

Step 7: Just tap on your profile, followed by visiting the settings.

Step 8: In the settings bar, select Vanced Settings.

Step 9: Move to the Layout Settings and enable the Black Watch and Black Theme options.

Now, you have successfully disabled YouTube ads. Just go back and enjoy YouTube videos completely ad-free.

Why Youtube Vanced not available in PlayStore?

YouTube does offer a premium subscription plan, but not everyone wants to invest just to get ad-free features. You can get rid of YouTube ads for free on the desktop version by using an adblocker or YouTube Vanced which is against PlayStore policies.

Now you might ask where to download the YouTube Vanced APK?

You can download the YouTube Vanced APK for rooted or non-rooted devices according to your preference from YouTube Vanced website. You can even install the MicroG plugin APK from the website and sign in to your Google account to sync all your subscriptions and playlists present on the YouTube Vanced app.

Conclusion

Now you know all about YouTube Free and YouTube premium features. You can easily opt for any of the mentioned methods to disable ads popping up on YouTube and enjoy an ad-free experience.
