Quick answer

As we all know, TrueCaller is the most widely used phone number searching directory worldwide. Even though the service is not available in certain regions, it remains the best way to identify calls from unknown numbers.

As we all know, TrueCaller is the most widely used phone number searching directory worldwide. Even though the service is not available in certain regions, it remains the best way to identify calls from unknown numbers.

The TrueCaller service is not available in certain regions due to privacy issues. If you are concerned about this and wish to unlist your number from the TrueCaller database, you can check the detailed steps to remove a phone number on the TrueCaller website. However, in this article, we will check how to search for a number on TrueCaller on Android, iPhone and Web.

How to Perform Truecaller Number Search

Truecaller number search can be done in three ways. One from an Android mobile, another option is by using an iPhone, and the third option to do a truecaller search is by the truecaller website.

Truecaller Number Search using Android Mobile

To perform the truecaller search on an Android mobile, follow the below steps.

Step 1: Open the truecaller app on your android mobile.

Step 2: Once the app is open, you can see a search field at the top of the screen. Type or paste the number in the search field.

Step 3: Once you enter all the numbers, truecaller will automatically display the details of that particular number without hitting any additional button.

TrueCaller Phone Number Search on iPhone

If you are using an iPhone and wish to perform the true caller search, follow the below steps.

Step 1: Open the Truecaller app on your iPhone.

Step 2: On the main screen, you can see the search field; type the number you wish to search.

Step 3: The details would be shown if the details were available within Truecaller. Suppose no details are found for the provided phone number; no details other than the phone number will be available.

Truecaller Online Number Search Using the Truecaller.com Website

If you search for a phone number on truecaller from a pc or laptop, follow the steps below.

Step 1: Open any browser and enter the truecaller website address, which is truecaller.com

Step 2: Log in to the truecaller account using your Google or Microsoft account.

Step 3: Once signed in to the account, you can see the search box on the homepage of the truecaller.com website.

Step 4: Paste or enter the phone number that you wish to search and hit the search icon.

Step 5: If the details are available within truecaller, you will get all the details related to that particular number.

Conclusion

These are the three options to perform a truecaller online search to find the phone number details. If you are using an Android device, you can see the unknown number details using the Truecaller's default caller id screen, which is so handy.
