It is reported that WhatsApp has stopped working since last few minutes. The 2nd biggest messaging application is now down and people all around the world are checking in the twitter what is happening. The hashtag #whatsappdown is trending now and people all around the world are commenting their issues too.

As per the Down Detector, the application stopped working in almost all the part of the world, including India, Mexico, US, Brazil, UAE, Saudi Arabia, Kenya etc. As per the report, it was due to the server outage due to the high amount of message in the New Year's Eve.

Update: It is now reported that WhatsApp fixed the Issue and now the app is working fine.
